Dunklin Democrat

Despite the extended dry weather, which has prevailed thruout this section since the latter part of April. the cotton crop is in excellent condition, and with rains in the near future, the prospects for a good yield is better than at this time last year. Dexter Statesman.

George Hubbard has been visiting W. I. Manus, who lives about four miles southwest of Dexter. He says Manus has 50 acres of the finest cotton he has seen this season. It is equally rank and will produce a bale to a bale and a half to the acre. The same field raised 1600 pounds to the acre last year.

Fredericktown Tribus-

The official returns of the local option election held June 9 show that the local option side won by a majority of 140. The "Wets" got only 395 votes, which was only 18 more than the names on the petition sent to the court. This will settle the saloon question in Madison county for many years-probably fores r

Reports from the southern part of this county and the northern part of Wayne county are to the effect that rain is needed very hadly toore. They say that there was no rain through the mouth of May and none up to this time. The gardens are all dried up, the pocatoes, oats, and mendows out short and the wheat hore some by the dry wenther but with plenty of rais from now on through the summer corn will make a fairly good

Mark Nance, a young colored man. aged about 21, was dragged to death by a mule last Monday afternoon. Mark was working on the form for Randolph Shaner He was riding the mule which had the gearing on, and it is supposed he either fell off the nulle or was thrown by it. When found he was still handing to the mule, his foot securely wrapped by the chain. He was dead when parties reached him. Mark was a son of Wesley Nance, the janitor at the courthouse.

Campbell Citizen

Cal Broadway claim agent for the Cotton Belt railroad, was in the city looking after the claims of Bill Powell and other farmers living near the Cotton Belt track two miles northeast of this place. These farmers, through their attorneys, Judges Fort and Downing have sned the road for $22,000 damages, caused by the roadbed holding water back on their lands, thereby ruining their crops. They have been begging the company to open up a way for the water to pass through for some two or three years, but have failed of results, and now they are seeking to recover damages.

The Maine

The news dispatches convey the information that the work of lifting the battle ship Maine from its bed of mud has progressed so far that the discovery of dead bodies may be expected at any time-the bodies of death in the performance of their no permanent resting place. The kerens, owner of the Times, has had ance instead of enumeration. duties when their ship was destroyed. says The St. Louis Times,

These men have lain unrescued for over thirteen years, and the country has gone on about its business as there were no urgent duty toward hem to be attended to.

It may be doubted if such strange fore in the history of America. It would seem that the government had secret reasons for not wishing to have Maine the Maine raised.
